- The recipients of the data concerning him are, within the limits of their powers, the services of the Insurer in charge of the signing, management and execution of the Insurance Contract and guarantees, its delegates, agents, partners, subcontractors. , reinsurers in the performance of their duties.

They can also be transmitted, if necessary, to professional bodies as well as to all persons involved in the contract such as lawyers, experts, court officials and ministerial officers, curators, tutors, investigators.

Information concerning him may also be transmitted to the Subscriber, as well as to all persons authorized as Authorized Third Parties (courts, arbitrators, mediators, ministries concerned, supervisory and control authorities and all public bodies authorized to receive them as well as departments in charge of control such as statutory auditors, auditors as well as departments in charge of internal control).

- As a financial body, the Insurer is subject to legal obligations resulting mainly from the Monetary and Financial Code in the fight against money laundering and the financing of terrorism and, as such, it puts in implements contract monitoring processing that may result in the drafting of a suspicious transaction report or an asset freeze measure.

The data and documents concerning the Beneficiary are kept for a period of five (5) years from the end of the contract or the termination of the relationship.

- Their personal data may also be used in the context of processing to combat insurance fraud, which may lead, if necessary, to registration on a list of people at risk of fraud.

This registration may have the effect of extending the study of his file, or even reducing or refusing the benefit of a right, service, contract or service offered.

In this context, personal data concerning him (or concerning the persons parties or interested in the contract may be processed by any authorized persons intervening within the entities of the Insurer Group in the context of the fight against fraud. These data may also be intended for to authorized personnel of bodies directly concerned by fraud (other insurance bodies or intermediaries; judicial authorities, mediators, arbitrators, court officials, ministerial officers; third-party bodies authorized by a legal provision and, where applicable, victims of acts of fraud or their representatives).

In the event of a fraud alert, the data is kept for a maximum of six (6) months to qualify the alert and then deleted, unless the alert is relevant. In the event of a relevant alert, the data is kept for up to five (5) years from the closure of the fraud file, or until the end of legal proceedings and applicable limitation periods.

For people registered on a list of suspected fraudsters, their data is deleted past the period of 5 years from the date of registration on this list.

- In his capacity as Insurer, he is entitled to process data relating to offenses, convictions and security measures either when the contract is taken out, or during its execution or as part of the management of disputes. .

When the services provided in execution of the agreement are covered in whole or in part with another company or institution, MUTUAIDE ASSISTANCE is subrogated in the rights and actions of the beneficiary against this company or this institution.

ARTICLE 7 – PRESCRIPTION

However, this period does not run:

- in the event of reluctance, omission, false or inaccurate statement on the risk incurred, only from the day the Insurer had knowledge of it;

- in the event of a claim, only from the day on which the parties became aware of it, if they prove that they had not yet ignored it.

When the action of the Insured against the Insurer is caused by the recourse of a third party, this limitation period does not run only from the day on which this third party took legal action against the Insured or was indemnified by the latter.

This limitation period may be interrupted, in accordance with Article L 114-2 of the Insurance Code, by a the following common causes of interruption:

- recognition by the debtor of the right of the one against whom he prescribed (article 2240 of the Civil Code);
- legal action, even in summary proceedings, until the end of the proceedings. The same applies when it is brought before an incompetent court or when the act of referral to the court is annulled by the effect of a procedural defect (articles 2241 and 2242 of the Civil Code). The interruption is void if the applicant withdraws his request or allows the proceedings to expire, or if his request is definitively rejected (article 2243 of the Civil Code);

- a precautionary measure taken in application of the Code of Civil Enforcement Procedures or an act of execution (article 2244 of the Civil Code).

It is recalled that:

The arrest made to one of the joint and several debtors by a legal action or by an act of compulsory execution or the recognition by the debtor of the right of the one against whom he prescribed interrupts the limitation period against all the others, even against their heirs.

On the other hand, the interpellation made to one of the heirs of a joint and several debtor or the recognition of this heir does not interrupt the limitation period with regard to the other joint heirs, even in the event of a mortgage claim, if the obligation is divisible. This arrest or this recognition only interrupts the limitation period, with regard to the other co-debtors, for the part for which this heir is liable.

To interrupt the limitation period for the whole, with regard to the other co-debtors, it is necessary to arrest all the heirs of the deceased debtor or the recognition of all these heirs (article 2245 of the Civil Code).

The arrest made to the principal debtor or its recognition interrupts the limitation period against the surety (article 2246 of the Civil Code).

The limitation period can also be interrupted by:

- the appointment of an expert following a claim;
- sending a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt (sent by the Insurer to the Insured regarding the action for payment of the contribution, and sent by the Insured to the Insurer regarding the settlement of claims compensation).

ARTICLE 8 - SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Any dispute arising between the Insurer and the Beneficiary relating to the setting and payment of benefits will be submitted by the most diligent party, in the absence of an amicable resolution, to the competent court of the beneficiary's domicile in accordance with the provisions provided for in article R 114-1 of the Insurance Code

ARTICLE 9 - FALSE DECLARATIONS

When they change the subject of the risk or reduce our opinion:

- Any reluctance or intentionally false declaration on your part will void the contract. The premiums paid remain vested in us and we will be entitled to demand payment of the premiums due, as provided for in Article L 113.8 of the Insurance Code.
- Any omission or inaccurate declaration on your part whose bad faith is not established results in the termination of the contract 10 days after the notification which will be sent to you by registered letter and / or the application of the reduction in indemnities of the Insurance Code. as provided for in article L 113.9.

ARTICLE 10 - SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY

The authority responsible for monitoring MUTUAIDE ASSISTANCE is the Prudential Control and Resolution Authority

(ACPR) - 4, place de Budapest - CS 92 459 - 75 436 Paris Cedex 9.

MUTUAIDE ASSISTANCE is subrogated up to the amount of the indemnities paid and the services provided by it in the rights and actions of the Beneficiary, against any person responsible for the facts which motivated his intervention. When the services provided in execution of the agreement are covered in whole or in part with another company or institution, MUTUAIDE ASSISTANCE is subrogated in the rights and actions of the beneficiary against this company or this institution.

ARTICLE 7 – PRESCRIPTION

Pursuant to Article L 114-1 of the Insurance Code, any action deriving from this contract is prescribed by two years from the event giving rise to it. This period is extended to ten years for death guarantees, the shares of beneficiaries being prescribed no later than thirty years from this event.

However, this period does not run:

- in the event of reluctance, omission, false or inaccurate statement on the risk incurred, only from the day the Insurer

had knowledge of it;

- in the event of a claim, only from the day on which the parties became aware of it, if they prove that they were unaware of it until there.

When the action of the Insured against the Insurer is caused by the recourse of a third party, this limitation period does not run

only from the day on which this third party took legal action against the Insured or was indemnified by the latter.

This limitation period may be interrupted, in accordance with Article L 114-2 of the Insurance Code, by a the following common causes of interruption:

- recognition by the debtor of the right of the one against whom he prescribed (article 2240 of the Civil Code);
- legal action, even in summary proceedings, until the end of the proceedings. The same applies when it is brought before an incompetent court or when the act of referral to the court is annulled by the effect of a procedural defect (articles 2241 and 2242 of the Civil Code). The interruption is void if the applicant withdraws his request or allows the proceedings to expire, or if his request is definitively rejected (article 2243 of the Civil Code);
- a precautionary measure taken in application of the Code of Civil Enforcement Procedures or an act execution (article 2244 of the Civil Code).

It is recalled that:

The arrest made to one of the joint and several debtors by a legal action or by an act of compulsory execution or the recognition by the debtor of the right of the one against whom he prescribed interrupts the limitation period against all the others, even against their heirs.

On the other hand, the interpellation made to one of the heirs of a joint and several debtor or the recognition of this heir does not interrupt the limitation period with regard to the other joint heirs, even in the event of a mortgage claim, if the obligation is divisible. This arrest or this recognition only interrupts the limitation period, with regard to the other co-debtors, for the part for which this heir is liable.

To interrupt the limitation period for the whole, with regard to the other co-debtors, it is necessary to arrest all the heirs of the deceased debtor or the recognition of all these heirs (article 2245 of the Civil Code).

The arrest made to the principal debtor or its recognition interrupts the limitation period against the surety (article 2246 of the Civil Code).

The limitation period can also be interrupted by:

- the appointment of an expert following a claim;
- sending a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt (sent by the Insurer to the Insured regarding the action for payment of the contribution, and sent by the Insured to the Insurer regarding the settlement of claims compensation).

ARTICLE 8 - SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Any dispute arising between the Insurer and the Beneficiary relating to the setting and payment of benefits will be submitted by the most diligent party, in the absence of an amicable resolution, to the competent court of the beneficiary's domicile in accordance with the provisions provided for in article R 114-1 of the Insurance Code

ARTICLE 9 - FALSE DECLARATIONS

When they change the subject of the risk or reduce our opinion:

- Any reluctance or intentionally false declaration on your part will void the contract. The premiums paid remain vested in us and we will be entitled to demand payment of the premiums due, as provided for in Article L 113.8 of the Insurance Code.
- Any omission or inaccurate declaration on your part whose bad faith is not established results in the termination of the contract 10 days after the notification which will be sent to you by registered letter and /or the application of the reduction in indemnities of the Insurance Code. as provided for in article L 113.9.

ARTICLE 10 - SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY

The authority responsible for monitoring MUTUAIDE ASSISTANCE is the Prudential Control and Resolution Authority
